

TOP FIVE FRIDAY

ADVENTURE STORIES

1

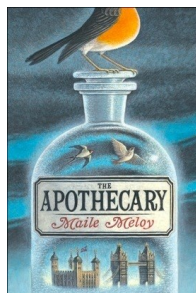

The Maze of Bones by Rick Riordan

YA 39 CLUES, CDB, playaway, ebook, eAudiobook

Amy and Dan have a choice: take a million dollars and walk away or get a clue that will help them find the source of their family's power. They choose to take the clue and begin a dangerous race to find the source.

2

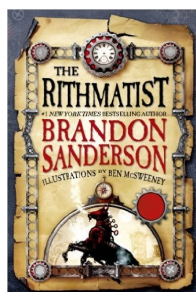

The Apothecary by Maile Meloy

YA MELOY, CDB, eAudiobook

When Janie moves to London, she meets a mysterious apothecary and his son, Benjamin. When Benjamin's father is kidnapped, Janie and Benjamin must use a book called the Pharmacopoeia to find him, while keeping the book out of the hands of Russian spies.

3

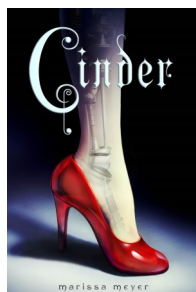

The Rithmatist by Brandon Sanderson

YA SANDERSON BRANDON, ebook, eAudiobook

Joel would do anything to become a Rithmatist and use the magical art to defend people against Wild Chalklings, but he doesn't have the gift. But when students start disappearing, Joel may still be able to help investigate the crimes.

4

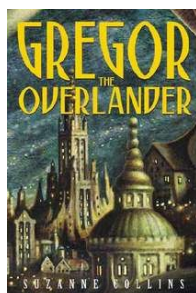

Cinder by Marissa Meyer

YA MEYER MARISSA, CDB, ebook, eAudiobook

Earth is in trouble: a plague is killing millions while governments across the world attempt to avoid war with the ruthless Lunars. If Cinder can uncover the secrets surrounding her past, she might become the key to saving the Earth.

5

Gregor the Overlander by Suzanne Collins

YA COLLINS, CDB, ebook, eAudiobook

When Gregor falls from his laundry room into the Underland, he finds a world filled with giant spiders, rats, and cockroaches. The Underland is on the brink of war and a prophecy says that Gregor has an important role to play.