Review:

Spring break is the start of the disaster. Meet Zach: he is going ice fishing for spring break. A blizzard is in the forecast with temperatures below zero. When his dad doesn't show up at the cabin, Zach goes looking for him. Little does Zach know that his father got into a bad car accident, leaving him severely injured and unconscious. Now it's all up to Zach to save the day. He has few supplies and a dog. He has a choice go to safety or find his dad. Getting attacked and freezing to death are two very possible outcomes. He finds his dad in horrible condition and sustains a few injuries himself. Skye will be the savior of them all. Will Zach, Skye, and Zach's dad escape this deadly blizzard or will they be frozen in time?
