

TOP FIVE FRIDAY

SPORTS STORIES

1

True Legend by Mike Lupica

YA LUPICA MIKE, ebook

Drew Robinson is the kind of basketball player everyone expects to reach the NBA, but that kind of talent can come with problems. Trouble has a way of finding him and, if he's not careful, he could end up becoming another washed-up former legend.

2

Soar by Joan Bauer

YA BAUER JOAN

Baseball is Jeremiah's favorite sport. When he's told he can no longer play due to his health, he decides to do the next best thing and become a coach. There's just one problem: Jeremiah's new town is about to give up on their championship baseball team.

3

Being Sloane Jacobs by Lauren Morrill

YA MORRILL, CDB

Sloane E. Jacobs and Sloane D. Jacobs both are spending the summer at sports camp: Sloane E. for figure skating and Sloane D. for hockey. Neither wants to go, so when they meet by chance, the two decide to swap lives for the summer.

4

The Crossover by Kwame Alexander

YA ALEXANDER, ebook, eAudiobook

Josh and Jordan are twin brothers and basketball stars. They've always been close both on and off the basketball court, but now their relationship is suffering thanks to Jordan's new girlfriend, their dad's poor health, and a bet they made about basketball.

5

Unstoppable by Tim Green

YA GREEN, ebook

Harrison dreams about playing in the NFL one day but, as a foster kid in a cruel home, his dream is a longshot—until he's brought to a new home with kind parents and a football coach for a dad. Harrison becomes a football star quickly, but his luck can't last forever.
