

TOP FIVE FRIDAY

VAMPIRES

1

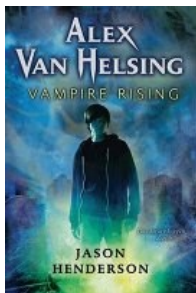

The Hunt by Andrew Fukuda

YA FUKUDA, ebook, eAudiobook

Gene has passed for a vampire for years. It's the only way to survive in a world where humans are hunted for their blood. But then Gene is chosen to participate in a hunt for the last remaining humans and the vampire hunters are getting suspicious.

2

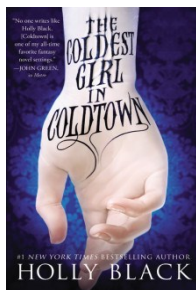

Vampire Rising by Jason Henderson

YA HENDERSON, ebook

Alex has no idea that he's descended from the world's most famous vampire hunter until he arrives at his new school and confronts two vampires in his first few days. When Alex's friends are kidnapped by a deadly vampire, it's up to Alex to get them back alive.

3

The Coldest Girl In Coldtown by Holly Black

YA BLACK, ebook, eAudiobook

One day, Tana, her ex-boyfriend, and a mysterious boy wake up surrounded by corpses. The only way to save the three of them is to travel to the heart of Coldtown, where quarantined monsters live. But once you enter Coldtown, you can never leave.

4

Look For Me By Moonlight by Mary Downing Hahn

YA HAHN

When the mysterious Vincent arrives to stay at her father's inn, Cynda is drawn to him immediately. He's charming and attentive and Cynda is sure she's in love. But Vincent is hiding a secret, one that could put Cynda and her family in terrible danger.

5

Birth of a Killer by Darren Shan

YA SHAN

When Larten's cousin is murdered, Larten flies into a rage and kills the murderer. Larten is forced to run and struggles to survive, sleeping in crypts and eating cobwebs. So when a vampire offers to train him as a vampire's assistant, Larten takes the offer.